Acts 16:1-5

1 Paul came to Derbe and then to Lystra, where a disciple named Timothy lived, whose mother was Jewish and a believer but whose father was a Greek.

Acts 16:1-5

²The believers at Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him. ³Paul wanted to take him along on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:1-5

⁴As they traveled from town to town, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the people to obey.

Acts 16:1-5

⁵So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

Where Do
We Go From Here?

Acts 16:6-11

⁶Paul and his companions traveled throughout the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia.

Acts 16:6-11

⁷ When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow to.

Acts 16:6-11

⁸ So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas. ⁹ During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

Acts 16:6-11

¹⁰ After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Acts 16:6-11

¹¹ From Troas we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day we went on to Neapolis.
